Whites in the Majority-Negroes Win Heavily-Police Court Busy.

The defeat of Jim Jeffries and the El Paso ball team, supposedly, caused enough fights Monday night, principally about the lower end of town, to keep the police ousy until early Tuesday morning. A total of 25 arrests were made for drunkenness, disturbing the peace and fighting, and participating in a crap game, Up until 6 p. m. Monday arrests were g light, one case for exceeding the speed limit, another for using abustve language and a couple of drunks being all the police handled. Not a single robbery was reported to the detectives R. B. E. during the day or night.

9 Those arrested for fighting were 2 mostly whites. While the negroes were son's victory at Reno, they did no beasting. They gathered in saloons and pool halfs and celegrand, wearing andles from ear to car, which was about all. Contrary to the practices In other cities throughout the country, where there was considerable the negroes of El Paro should be given credit for remaining peaceable. Most of them won considerable money as the result of the fight, taking in the coin from their white bosses, as well as barber shop and bootblack stand patrons, in many instances. Police judge Lea took a holiday, or rather a half holiday Monday, no afternoon session of police court being held, Tuesday morning there were seven of-At Boston—
